

31st October 2003.

TO: ALL CHCs

Dear Colleagues,

NEW DIRECTOR of ACHCEW

I am delighted to announce that ACHCEW has appointed a new Director to take over from me when I leave in December. Malcolm Alexander, currently Chief Officer of Southwark CHC will take over the reigns on 5th December. Malcolm, I and the Honorary Officers will be liaising closely before then and Malcolm and I will have a week's 'overlap' to ensure that the handover is as seamless as possible.

Many of you will already know or know of Malcolm. I had the pleasure of working with him for several years as a fellow Chief Officer in London. He has a great deal of experience and, amongst other things was responsible for starting 'casualty-watch'. In the meantime, you can expect a few more communications from me!

Yours sincerely

Peter Walsh
Director
