

RESULTS FOR 28th OCTOBER 2002

36 CHCs covered 40 hospitals in London, Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Hertfordshire, Hampshire and Birmingham.

LONGEST WAITS IN OCTOBER

The top 3 longest trolley waits were at Bromley Hospital, where a 35-year-old male patient, who had suffered from cord compression the previous day, waited for a bed for over 32 hours. At the same hospital a 79-year-old male patient, suffering from acopia, waited over 31.5 hours to be admitted to a Ward bed. A 51-year-old male, who had had chest pain the previous night, was still waiting to be seen by a specialist after more than 30.5 hours.

The longest Casualty bed wait, in an A & E department, was at Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Greenwich. At this hospital an 88-year-old woman, who had come in with congestive cardiac failure on the 26th October, had waited for a ward bed for over 49 hours. At Frimley Park Hospital a 40-year-old lady, requiring treatment due to a chest infection, had been waiting for a bed in the Observation Ward for over 41 hours. Also at Queen Elizabeth Hospital, a 79-year-old male was in the A & E after suffering a fall that occurred on the 27th October. He was in the A&E for over 40 hours.

Throughout the participating hospitals, 1 patient waited, from the 26th October, and a total of 53 patients, waited from 27th October, in Casualty Departments for periods of 16.45 hours up to 49.49 hours.

The total number of patients in A&E departments recorded in October was 962 of whom 85 (8.8%) had waited ten hours or more. 38 (3.95%) had waited for more than 20 hours.

The total number of patients who had waited four hours or more was 379 (39.4%).

Over 70s

41 people aged 70 and over had been in the Accident and Emergency departments in excess of 10 hours, and of these 10 were on trolleys. (See table on page II and III)
